Course purpose and objectives	Course Purpose: This module will focus on improving students' reading skills. Students will read a variety of academic texts, such as research articles, essays, and literary pieces, to enhance their reading comprehension and critical thinking skills. They will learn how to analyze and interpret texts, identify main arguments, and draw basic conclusions. They will learn strategies how to extract key information, and making inferences from different texts. They will learn how to recognise a text that provides factual information and when it seeks to convince readers of something. They will learn how to recognize different structures in discursive text: contrasting arguments, problem-solution presentation, and cause-effect relationships. They will learn how to obtain information, ideas and opinions from sources within their field. They will develop strategies for efficient reading and effective note taking. Course Objectives <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ To provide students with the necessary skills to read and interpret written texts efficiently and accurately, including non-academic material; ▪ To ensure students have the adequate abilities of comprehension, required for higher education course materials; ▪ To understand the structure and organization of different types of texts, including recognizing how ideas are presented and linked together. ▪ To learn and apply different reading strategies such as skimming, scanning, and predicting to comprehend texts more efficiently. ▪ To increase familiarity with a wider range of vocabulary encountered in various reading materials, thereby improving overall language proficiency.
Learning outcomes	By the end of this course, students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Grasp the main points, general meaning, and key information presented in texts related to familiar topics or everyday situations. ▪ Comprehend specific details, facts, opinions, attitudes, and intentions conveyed in written texts on familiar subjects. ▪ Understand a range of text types such as articles, reports, narratives, and instructions, and be able to identify different writing styles and purposes.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Deduce meaning from context, recognise implied information, attitudes, emotions, and intentions conveyed in written discourse. ▪ Develop efficient skimming and scanning skills to quickly locate specific information within longer texts. ▪ Begin to critically analyse and evaluate information, arguments, or viewpoints presented in texts, forming personal opinions or interpretations. ▪ Comprehend advanced academic material both accurately and efficiently; ▪ Extract information from a variety of sources with confidence; ▪ Interpret tone, style and intention of written communications and published works; ▪ Source and identify reliable information for the purposes of their studies
